CHURCH TEA PARTY

A Joyful 'toon by Mike Waters

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. — EPHESIANS 6:12 NIV

In 1773, the American revolutionaries resisted the British authorities and their tea tax by dumping the British tea into Boston Harbor. As Christians, we are also in resistance against the evil spiritual rulers and authorities of Satan's kingdom.

Ephesians 6:11-13 Put on all of God's armor so that you will be able to stand safe against all strategies and tricks of Satan. For we are not fighting against people made of flesh and blood, but against persons without bodies—the evil rulers of the unseen world, those mighty satanic beings and great evil princes of darkness who rule this world; and against huge numbers of wicked spirits in the spirit world. So use every piece of God's armor to resist the enemy whenever he attacks, and when it is all over, you will still be standing up (TLB).

Demons and Their Titles

Where Satan is concerned, there are two dangerous extremes which we can fall into in the Christian life. One is to think too highly of him and to see him in everything we encounter and everyone we meet. The other is not to take him seriously at all and to disregard any knowledge of him or his kingdom. We are told twice in the New Testament that an understanding of Satan's kingdom is essential to our spiritual success.

“Christ in you, the hope of glory.” I’m not afraid of the devil. The devil can handle me – he’s got judo I never heard of. But he can’t handle the One to whom I’m joined; he can’t handle the One to whom I’m united; he can’t handle the One whose nature dwells in my nature.

– A. W. Tozer

So submit to [the authority of] God. Resist the devil [stand firm against him] and he will flee from you.

2 Corinthians 2:11 ... lest Satan should take advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices.

Ephesians 6:11 Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

Demons are listed by ranks in Ephesians 6:12, but this does not give their characteristics and personalities. We are told their characteristics and personalities by the titles they are given in the New Testament:

1. Evil Spirits (poneros). The same Greek word is used for wicked spirits, and it means “a malignant evil which causes labor and harm.” Since it is an evil which is malignant, it grows steadily worse in its burdensome toil and physical harm. Satan is never content to rest but seeks more and more domination until he destroys. Some of the scriptures dealing with this type of demon are Luke 7:21, Acts 19:12, 13, 15, 16, and Ephesians 6:12.

2. Foul Spirits (akathartos). As you can see, this is also the same Greek word used for unclean spirits. The word means “impure” and encompasses everything filthy and vile. Foul spirits are found in Matthew 12:43, Mark 5:13, 7:25, Luke 9:42, and Acts 8:7.

3. Spirits of Infirmity (astheneia). This demon manifests himself as weakness, lack of strength, or inability to produce normal results. He confuses by disguising himself as an illness. There seems to be no real evident sickness, but the person is continually tired, manifesting symptoms of a disease, and whatever effort is expended to treat the illness brings little or no results. Jesus healed infirmities (Luke 5:15, John 5:5) and “took our infirmities” (Matthew 8:17). He also cast out spirits of infirmities (Luke 13:11,12).

4. Spirit of Divination (puthos). This Greek word gives us our English word “python.” Python came from Greek mythology and was the serpent guarding the Oracle of Delphi, where the gods prophesied to the people. It was said to have been slain by Apollo. The particular demon which took this name is mentioned in the New Testament in Acts 16:16-18, where it possesses a young girl in Philippi. As a fortune-teller through the demon’s power, she pretended to be a believer, calling the apostles “servants of the most high God.” Paul was confused by this at first, but after a few days, he recognized it as a demon, posing as a forerunner for his ministry. He cast out this devil, and it left the girl immediately.

5. Seducing Spirits (pianos). What these demons do is obvious from their names. They entice and deceive people in order to lead them away from the Word of God. They exemplify Satan’s main ministry of deception (Revelation 12:9). Satan and his demons appear as messengers of God and distort Scripture. They appear as sweet and religious, but underneath are vicious (Revelation 2:20). Paul warned us about them (First Timothy 4:1), as did John (First John 2:26). Seducing spirits begin by presenting the Word of God, cloaking themselves with it, but introduce a trace of error at the same time. Gradually, through that one lie, they will draw the believer away from the truth and place them in bondage.
