Becoming a Christian - Simple Steps (1) Confess your sins: Father God, I'm a sinner. (2) Repent of your sins: I'm sorry for my sins. (3) Ask forgiveness for your sins: Please forgive me for my sins. (4) Invite Jesus into your life: I want You Jesus Christ to be my personal Savior. (5) Ask to be filled with the Holy Spirit: Fill me with Your Spirit. Now pray this prayer: "Dear God, I'm a sinner. I'm sorry for my sins. Forgive me of my sins. I want Jesus Christ to be my Savior. I want to be filled with Your Holy Spirit, so I may live my life with Your power. In Jesus' name, Amen." Now What? Tell someone.

WELCOME to FMC

Because the Lord is my Shepherd, I have everything I need! He lets me rest in the meadow grass and leads me beside the quiet streams. He gives me new strength. He helps me do what honors Him the most. Even when walking through the dark valley of death I will not be afraid, for You are close beside me, guarding, guiding all the way. You provide delicious food for me in the presence of my enemies. You have welcomed me as Your guest; blessings overflow! Your goodness and unfailing kindness shall be with me all of my life, and afterwards I will live with You forever in Your home. Psalm 23 (TLB)

PSALMS 23

The Lord is my Shepherd

I shall not want

He makes me to lie down in green pastures

He leads me besides still waters

He restores my soul

He leads me in the paths of righteousness.

For His Name's sake

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death

I will fear no evil

For You are with me

Your rod and your staff they comfort me

You prepare a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

You anoint my head with oil

My cup runs over

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord

Forever

Billy Graham November 7, 1918 - February 21, 2018

Mr. Graham preached the Gospel to more people in live audiences than anyone else in history—nearly 215 million people in more than 185 countries and territories. Hundreds of millions more have been reached through television, video, film, and webcasts.

Before his death, Billy Graham approved the following response as his final My Answer column. Mr. Graham's column will continue in some form.

Q: Mr. Graham, how would you like to be remembered?

A. I hope I will be remembered as someone who was faithful—faithful to God, faithful to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and faithful to the calling God gave me not only as an evangelist, but as a husband, father and friend.

I'm sure I've failed in many ways, but I take comfort in Christ's promise of forgiveness, and I take comfort also in God's ability to take even our most imperfect efforts and use them for His glory.

By the time you read this, I will be in heaven, and as I write this I'm looking forward with great anticipation to the day when I will be in God's presence forever.

I'm convinced that heaven is far more glorious than anything we can possibly imagine right now, and I look forward not only to its wonder and peace, but also to the joy of being reunited with those who have gone there before me, especially my dear wife, Ruth. The Bible says, "Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face" (1 Corinthians 13:12).

But I won't be in heaven because I've preached to large crowds or because I've tried to live a good life. I'll be in heaven for one reason: Many years ago I put my faith and trust in Jesus Christ, who died on the cross to make our forgiveness possible and rose again from the dead to give us eternal life. Do you know you will go to heaven when you die? You can, by committing your life to Jesus Christ today.
